Crisis & Counseling Centers Announces the Appointment of Angela Bartlett to Board of Directors

Tuesday, November 30, 2021, AUGUSTA, ME – Crisis & Counseling Centers (C&C) announced today the appointment of Angela Bartlett, Executive Director of Human Resources at Pine State Trading Co., to its Board of Directors. Angela will provide strategic direction for continued growth around C&C's mission to develop and deliver effective solutions to the diverse behavioral health needs of our community in a professional and respectful manner.

Angela Bartlett, Executive Director of Human Resources at Pine State Trading Co.

"We are extremely grateful to welcome Angela to our team. She brings a freshness of perspective, enthusiasm, and positive energy that will help guide the agency's work into a new era," said Sabra Burdick, president of C&C's Board. "Angela's extensive experience in both the human resources field and the financial sector will also be invaluable to our work as a board."

In her role at Pine State, Angela is responsible for all matters related to employee culture, support, and management. Before joining Pine State, Angela served as Human Resources Manager from 2011 – 2015, and Loan Servicing Manager from 2003 - 2011 for the former Gardiner Savings Institution (acquired by The Bank of Maine), and she held a variety of positions within The First, N.A. from 1999 – 2003. In addition, Angela is currently serving a two-year term on the Board of Directors for the Healthcare Purchaser Alliance of Maine. She holds a Business Management degree from West Virginia University and lives in the central Maine area with her husband and their twelve-year-old son.

"I passionately feel that there's a need for more awareness of the work being done at Crisis & Counseling Centers and about the mental health and addiction needs of the people living within our central Maine community. I am eager to listen, learn more about the work, and support the agency in responding to community needs that are still unmet," said Angela.
